

WASHINGTON, DC NATIONAL CHERRY BLOSSOM FESTIVAL 2012 CENTENNIAL

April 1-5, 2012

Escorted by Joyce Williams

HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE

- Round trip air between Wichita and Washington, DC
- Private motorcoach in Washington, DC
- Services of Jane Junghans, Washington, DC's #1 Guide
- Visit to Arlington National Cemetery, with tourmobile, to include the Changing of the Guard at the Tomb of the Unknowns and the Kennedy gravesites
- Iwo Jima (Marine Corps) Memorial
- Illuminated Night Tour of DC's Memorials & Monuments
- World War II Veterans Memorial
- Jefferson Memorial (the quintessential spot for viewing the famous cherry trees)
- FDR Memorial
- Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial
- Lincoln Memorial
- Korean War Veterans Memorial
- Vietnam Veterans Memorial
- Embassy Row (driving tour)
- Washington National Cathedral, inside guided tour
- Smithsonian Institution Museums (most popular are the National Air & Space and National Museums of American History & Natural History)
- White House exterior tour (White House interior tour subject to approval)
- Smithsonian's Renwick Gallery's "Something of Splendor: Decorative Arts from the White House"
- National Portrait Gallery/American Art
- Capitol Hill including tour of the Capitol building
- Hillwood Gardens & Museum, Marjorie Merriweather Post's former home
- Mount Vernon, including the Orientation Center, Museum plus the mansion and outbuildings of George & Martha Washington's plantation home

- Farewell lunch at the beautiful Mount Vernon Inn
- 8 meals (4 full breakfasts, 1 farewell lunch, 3 dinners)
- 4 nights at the Washington Hilton, near Dupont Circle in the heart of the nation's capital.
- All gratuities and baggage handling while in Washington
- Travel Guard Group Cancellation/Interruption Insurance

$2,395⁰⁰

per person, based on double occupancy

Single Supplement- Add $400

Triple - Deduct $125, Quad - Deduct $160

All payments non-refundable,

Everyone should see the cherry blossoms blooming in our nation's capital at least once

The 2012 Festival is a Once in a Lifetime Celebration!

